

Carter Rogers

+1 916-295-9953 | carter.rogers.h@gmail.com | <https://www.linkedin.com/in/carter-harrison-rogers/> | Washington State

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Program manager, policy researcher, and analyst whose experience spans industry, academia, and the public sector. Synthesizes insights from disparate fields into actionable frameworks and brings together stakeholders across sectors, driven by a focus on positive impact and empirical insights.

EDUCATION

University of Cambridge

September 2025 – June 2026

Master of Philosophy in Politics and International Relations

-Recipient, Clare Hall Tutors' Fund Research Award, 2026

Utah State University

September 2016 – April 2020

Bachelor of Science, Political Science, magna cum laude

Student, Frontier AI Governance Course

April 2026 – May 2026

BlueDot Impact – Weekly meetings to discuss critical and current AI Safety topics, led by specialists in the field.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Associate

December 2025 – Present

Oxford Computational Political Science Group (OCPSG) | Oxford, United Kingdom (Remote)

- Analyzing immigration and anti-discrimination policy and making formal recommendations to policymakers.
- Conducting quantitative research and computational work as part of a small team.
- Using Sentiment Analysis to analyze online discussions and legal policy.
- Utilizing the Natural Language Processing (NLP) functions of AI Technologies (AITs).

Governance and Policy Fellow, AI Safety

January 2026 – June 2026

Cambridge AI Safety Hub (CAISH) | Cambridge, United Kingdom

- Authored "AI and Mundane Risk", submitted to the 2026 Cambridge-McKinsey Risk Prize, arguing that mundane AI problems function as compounding factors for existential risk scenarios.
- Research included AI risk and potential timelines, state-based AI regulatory policy, compute governance, model cards, responsible scaling policies, and other critical areas of AI safety policy and regulatory frameworks.

Associate Editor

October 2025 – June 2026

Cambridge Review of International Affairs (CRIA) | Cambridge, United Kingdom

- Working within a large team to ensure journal articles are ready for release and publication.
- Assisting with the timely publication of six editions per year of a major, peer-reviewed journal.
- Copy-editing using an in-house style guide developed over CRIA's decades of publication history.

English Language Instructor, JET Programme

September 2021 – July 2025

Agatsuma Board of Education & Worldwide | Gunma and Yamanashi, Japan

Legislative Intern

January 2020 – April 2020

Senator Ron Wyden | Washington, D.C.

- Held regular meetings with various Congressional offices to coordinate the passage of legislation.
- Researched legislation and legal developments in technology and healthcare policy.
- Wrote and disseminated official communications on behalf of Ron Wyden's Senate Office.
- Directly address and solved constituent concerns on behalf of the office through continuous casework.

Project Manager, Billing

May 2017 – January 2020, May 2020 – August 2021

Conservice Utility Billing | Logan, Utah

- Headed my team's regulatory compliance efforts for onboarding new clients.
- Responsible for accurately billing over 200 commercial properties using in-house programs and Excel.
- Synthesized fragmented regulatory documentation and designed a new in-house system for ensuring compliance.
- Led communication between clients, leadership, and the legal team to meet clear deliverables.

LEADERSHIP

Executive Council Member, USU Government Relations Council

January – December 2019

Utah State University

- Advocated for favorable education policy with local leaders in Logan, Utah and the Utah State Legislature.
- Directly advocated for specific policies to individual legislators in the Utah State Legislature.
- Helped lead several successful accessibility-based initiatives on campus.

SKILLS

Languages: Native English, conversational and business Japanese proficiency.

Technical: Intermediate proficiency in R. Experience with LLM prompt engineering and capabilities. Experience with Natural Language Processing (NLP) and Sentiment Analysis. NIST AI Standards. Deploying AI Frontier Models. Data scraping and cleaning experience. AI Governance and Ethics. Microsoft Excel. Government and Policy Expertise. Interpersonal skills. Remote work experience.