

Education

Clare Hall, University of Cambridge

MPhil in Politics and International Relations - in progress

2025-2026

Utah State University

Bachelor of Science, Political Science, magna cum laude

2016-2020

Professional Experience

Governance Fellow

January 2026 – Present

Cambridge AI Safety Hub (CAISH) | Cambridge, United Kingdom

- Authored "AI and Mundane Risk", submitted to the 2026 Cambridge-McKinsey Risk Prize — arguing that mundane AI problems function as compounding factors for existential risk scenarios.
- Research includes: AI risk and potential timelines, regional policymaking in the US, EU, and China, compute governance, and responsible scaling policies.

Research Associate

December 2025 - Present

Oxford Computational Political Science Group (OCPSG) | Oxford, United Kingdom (Remote)

- Conducting quantitative research and computational work as part of a small team.
- Using Sentiment Analysis to analyze online discussions and legal policy.
- Utilizing the Natural Language Processing (NLP) functions of AI Technologies (AITs).
- Working with editors to prepare academic articles for publication.

Associate Editor

October 2025 - Present

Cambridge Review of International Affairs (CRIA) | Cambridge, United Kingdom

- Working within a large team to ensure journal articles are ready for release and publication.
- Assisting with the publication of six editions per year of a major, peer-reviewed journal.
- Copy-editing using an in-house style guide developed over CRIA's decades of publication history.
- Meeting deadlines, delegating tasks, and contributing to a student-run, peer-reviewed journal.

English Language Instructor, Minobu Junior High and JET Programme

September 2021 – July 2025

Agatsuma Board of Education - Gunma, Japan | Worldwide - Yamanashi, Japan

- Teaching regular English classes to 7th-9th grade students based on national curriculum standards.
- Presented at the 2023 Seminar for Globalization, held by the Japan Ministry of Internal Affairs.
- Presented at prefectural JET conference, "Revitalization and Internationalization of the Kōshu region."

Legislative Intern

January 2020 - April 2020

Senator Ron Wyden | Washington, D.C.

- Held regular meetings with various Congressional offices to coordinate the passage of legislation.
- Researched legislation and legal developments in the health policy area.
- Wrote and disseminated official communications on behalf of Ron Wyden's Senate Office.
- Directly address and solved constituent concerns on behalf of the office through continuous casework.

Project Manager, Billing

May 2017 - Jan 2020, May 2020 - August 2021

Conservance Utility Billing | Logan, Utah

- Responsible for accurately billing over 200 commercial properties using in-house programs and Excel.
- Headed my team's regulatory compliance efforts while onboarding a new client.

Academic Experience

Student, Frontier AI Governance Course

April 2026 – Present

BlueDot Impact

- Weekly meetings to discuss critical and current AI Safety topics, led by specialists in the field.

Undergraduate Teaching Fellow

August 2018 - December 2019

College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Department of Political Science

- Headed a team of four Teaching Assistants covering six sections of an intro political science course.
- Led supplemental instruction classes each week for students struggling with critical concepts.
- Met with students during biweekly office hours to assess performance and review academic papers.

Teaching Assistant

January - May 2018

College of Humanities and Social Sciences, Department of Political Science

- Assisted in teaching United States Government and Politics for Dr. Michael Lyons.
- Graded essays and exams for three classes of 100+ students. Proctored online quizzes.
- Used the Canvas software to create and design assignments and tests.

Scholar, College of Humanities and Social Sciences Merrill Scholars Program

January – May 2018

College of Humanities and Social Sciences

- One of six students chosen to engage in weekly seminars analyzing contemporary U.S. issues and their global implications.

Academic Achievements

Recipient, Clare Hall Tutors' Fund Research Award

2026

Recipient, College of Humanities and Social Sciences Dean's List, 8 semesters

2016-2020

Recipient, Mehdi Heravi Political Science Scholarship

2018

Recipient, USU Dean's Scholarship

2016-2020

Leadership

Housing Representative

October 2025 - Present

University of Cambridge, Clare Hall

- Acting as a point of contact for escalating/advocating any issues of concern within Clare Hall housing.
- Attending regular meetings of all House Representatives and discussing potential improvements.

Executive Council Member, USU Government Relations Council

January - December 2019

Utah State University

- Advocated for favorable education policy with local leaders in Logan, Utah and the Utah State Capitol.
- Helped lead a successful initiative to ban smoking and tobacco usage on campus.

Executive Board Member, USU Pi Sigma Alpha Council

January 2019 – May 2020

Utah State University Political Science Department

- Elected student leader in Pi Sigma Alpha, the largest honor society for Political Science in the United States.
- Attended biweekly meetings to discuss events and involvement in the USU Political Science Dept.

Skills

Native English, Japanese conversational and business proficiency.

Japanese Language Proficiency Test levels N5, N4, and N3 passed.

Intermediate proficiency in R. Experience with LLM Prompt Engineering and capabilities. Experience with Natural Language Processing (NLP) and Sentiment Analysis. AI and LLM Experience. Agentic Coding. Data scraping and cleaning experience. AI Governance and Ethics. Microsoft Excel and Publisher, Audio Editing, Video Editing, Photoshop, and presentation software experience. Government and Policy Expertise.